

Westmoreland Conservancy Hunting Policies

The King, Potter, Tomer, Walter, Caywood and McGinnis Reserves are all deed-restricted properties, prohibiting hunting of any sort. Posted $2500 fine for violation.

The Morosini Reserve hunting rights are held by heirs to the privilege. The rights are non-transferable and do not revert to Westmoreland Conservancy until such time as they are exhausted or relinquished. Hunting is by permission only, and anyone hunting on the reserve must show written permission to be on the property. Posted $2500 fine for violation.

The Flinn Reserve hunting rights have not been extended to the public. Anyone found hunting on this reserve must show written permission to be on the property. Posted $2500 fine for violation.

There is no public access or hunting on the Thompson Reserve.
